

PRINCE OF WALES IN NO HURRY TO WED

Buckingham Palace Discounts Suggestion He Is to Wed an English Girl.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—An editorial in the Times, which has attracted much attention, advocating the marriage of the Prince of Wales to an English girl, is said at Buckingham Palace to have no special significance though its purpose is approved there.

The Prince, according to his friends, is in no hurry to marry and is determined not to be rushed into matrimony for purely public or political reasons. What he needs most just now, as is plain to any one who has seen him, is absolute rest from all public occupations, and it is said that the Queen is resolved he shall have it.

His next brother, the Duke of York, is subject to a marriage rumor, the young lady picked for him being the granddaughter of Mr. Ernest Cassel, Miss Edwina Ashley, one of the richest heiresses in England. She is also prettily, but whether her German strain would please public opinion is questionable.

OFF FOR CRUGER CASE TRIAL.
Assistant District Attorney Owen Bohan is en route to Italy to participate in the trial of Alfredo Cocchi for the murder of Ruth Cruger in this city Feb. 13, 1917. Cocchi will be placed on trial in Bologna, Oct. 25. Ruth Cruger's body was found in the cellar under Cocchi's bicycle repair shop at No. 443 West 127th Street.

ROMANCE OF A LINER.

Civil Engineer and Fellow Passenger Get Marriage License.

While returning home, after a long absence in India, where he had gone several years ago for the International General Electric Company of New York, Harold B. White, thirty-five, a civil engineer, met Miss Virginia Crofoot of Omaha, Neb., who was returning from a trip to England.

When the steamer Manrotania docked last week, the brief acquaintance was thought by each to have ended. Perhaps it would have been had not Mr. White again met Miss Crofoot a few days later at a hotel in this city.

Miss Crofoot and Mr. White will be married today in the Church of the Sacred Heart, No. 415 West 60th Street. They obtained a marriage license yesterday.

LYNCH ALABAMA NEGRO.

Posse Finds Riddled Body After Alleged Attack on White Boss.

GREENVILLE, Ala., Oct. 15.—Select Reid, a negro, was lynched by a mob near Greenville yesterday after an alleged attack by him on A. H. Arrington, Superintendent of the Southern Cotton Oil Company plant.

The negro is alleged to have struck Arrington with an iron pipe after he had been discharged by the Superintendent. Arrington is believed to have been fatally injured.

A posse located the negro in a swamp and his body when found bore a number of bullet wounds.
